NOTES OF THE TURF.

Porter Ashe's great horse Ruinart, winner of last year's Burns' Handicap and other valuable stakes, is rapidly rounding to. He had a dicky leg all summer and broke out in blotches or boils all over this fall, but since they have disappeared he has gone sound all round and experienced trainers say that he will certainly stand training. He showed the other morning that he still retained his speed by stepping six furlongs on the Oakland track in 1:15 1/4 with a big boy in the saddle. The first half was negotiated in 49 seconds.—San Francisco Examiner.

J. I. Cavanaugh of Sacramento, bred Banewor, the Stromboli filly that won on January 22, and for which Messrs. Burns & Waterhouse paid Tom Boyle $2500 contingent on her winning. The mining magnates own several more by the slashing son of Chester and Aetna, who should never have been allowed to go back to Australia. It is whispered that a correspondence has already been opened up in connection with his return to this country.—San Francisco correspondent in Spirit of the Times.

The bones of George Wilkes are to be articulated and mounted in the new museum of the Kentucky State College. On neighboring stands in the National Museum in Washington, D. C., are to be seen the skeletons of the mighty Lexington and old Henry Clay, types of the runner and the trotter. In the War Department Museum in the same city the stuffed and mounted skin of George M. Patchen is a life like and interesting relic of other days.

While some mystery was made about the horses shipped to England by James R. Keene last week, it is probable the following is the correct list: Ch. f., Nautch Girl, by Pepper and Salt—Cerito; b. f., Blushing Beauty, by Fitzsimon—Princess Caroline; b. f., Maid of Erin, by Amphion—Mavourneen; ch. c., Easter Gift, by Candlemas—Ella T; ch. c., Cock Robin, by Tea Tray—Casket, and b. or br. f., by Chorister—Brown Beauty.

A recent letter from New Zealand says that the get of Foul Shot are grand lookers and likely to win many good races during the coming season. This will be cheering news to his present owner, Barney Schreiber, who has the stallion at his fine breeding farm, Woodlands, near St. Louis.—Spirit of the Times.

European governments contribute considerable money toward the horse breeding interest. Last year France appropriated $435,755; Germany, $961,000; Austria, $850,000; and Hungary, $165,000. In addition to the above amount the French government contributed about $500,000 for premiums at exhibitions.

In the Continental books, so states a cable from London under date of January 31, Voter's price for the Lincolnshire Handicap is 16 to 1, while 12 to 1 is quoted about St. Cloud II. Mr. Keene's entry is well liked, and if sent to the post fit, Voter should prove a contender at the finish.

Mrs. Chris Smith, wife of Chris Smith of Kendall Stable fame, has been dangerously ill for the past three weeks at the Mercy Hospital. An operation was necessary. Mrs. Smith is slowly getting better and is expected to be convalescent in a month.

Jockey James Lamley has begun an action in the Supreme Court of New York County, N. Y., against W. C. Daly. Lamley alleges that when he left Daly's employ in 1893, he entrusted to the latter $1,010 which he cannot collect.

Baker & Gentry have had the misfortune to lose the bay filly (sister to Rosinante), two years old, by Charaxus—Ethie. She fell in the stable fracturing her hip and had to be destroyed.—Kentucky Stock Farm.

The Bronston bill limiting race tracks to two meetings per annum of no more than fifteen days each passed the Kentucky Senate Saturday without a dissenting vote.

Rey Alfonso is not to be shipped to Guatemala, as erroneously reported. He is at a ranch near Salinas, where he will be kept in the stud.—San Francisco Examiner.

Will McDaniels has engaged to train for Lancaster & Co., while his brother Henry will perform similar service for W. Showalter.

Victorine, the dam of Ornament, now at Elmendorf Stud, is undoubtedly with foal to Order. She is due to foal on March 29.

Ida Pickwick is due to foal this month to Quicklime. She will be bred to Himyar. Souffle's dam will also be bred to the sire of Domino.

Jockey Simms is in Louisville and report has it that his business there is to sign a contract to ride for John E. Madden this year.

Starter H. D. Brown has been engaged by the Queen City Jockey Club operating the Newport, Ky., track for the season of 1898.

Barney Schreiber has turned out Schiller, Sir William, Aquinas, Sorrow and Don Carillo at Antioch.

The Turf Exchange at Louisville is to open a future book on the Kentucky Derby.

There is an important letter at this office for Starter Dick Dwyer.

Galen Brown has purchased Can't Dance from Ed Corrigan.

THE WESTERN STAKES OF 1898.

The conditions of the Montana Derby are to be changed so that every entrant will carry his or her scale weight. The penalty and allowance clauses of the race are to be stricken out. Three more stakes, each of $1,000, will be added to the present array of seventeen stakes for the Butte and Anaconda meetings of 1898. All the new fixtures will be for two-year-old fillies.

Mr. Marcus Daly was in town Friday and confirmed the matters stated above. At the same time he secured the second call on Jockey Taral from Messrs. Bromley & Co.

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The first edition of the American Sporting Manual is exhausted. A second edition is on the market. The book is by far the best thing in the line of records ever offered to the American public. The paper edition sells for 25 cents. The soft morocco covered, gold lettered Manual at 50 cents is a volume that the lover of correct sporting records can use for a score of years.

Winner—Gr. c. by Gold Finch—Helen Scratch.
Start good. Won in a hard drive by three horses. Scratch was best, lucky and well ridden. Clarando ran his race. He is only of sharp account on a muddy track. Come is a good colt and best in mud. He was cut off sharply on first turn and closed strong. He is ready. The track was too hard for Ventura. She was sore and lame. Watch The Miller. The going did not suit him. Rainier inclines to fast going.

Start good. Won not much doing behind

Off at first break to a good start. Won driving; the next four were under full sail. Treopia can do better. This was not his race. Everest finished strong. Al Kyrus was in the heavy going all the way. Burns made too much use of Carlotta C early. Oldham's race was a good one. Lake View Palace ran a dull race.

Scratched—Wrangling Duchess, 99; Mazeppa, 105; Jolly Son, 107.

Winner—Br. c, by Jim Gore—British Blue Blood.

Off at first break to a good start. It was a drive between the first three. Peter Archer was slow to begin. Gilmore was of little help to him. The distance was too far for Saratoga. The Doctor is getting good. Volutante got a weak ride. R. E. Sack was hustled all the way. The race will do Wilson good.

Scratched—Bucksaw, 99; Coronatus, 106; Possum, 106.

Overweights—The Doctor, 3 pounds; Duchess of York, 5.
